

German 2310 Fall 2009

Instructor: Dr. Ulrich Bach
Office: Centennial 148
Office Hour: T/TH 3:30–4:30
E-Mail address: ub10@txstate.edu

Course Description:

German 2310 is a communicative course in German. The primary goal of instruction in 2310 is to help you to develop your ability to communicate in German (both in spoken and written language.)

Our class will meet T/TH for 75 minutes. You are also required to complete the assigned homework. You should spend at least one hour outside of class studying for every hour in class. Consider forming small informal study groups with other 2310 students. Students have reported that going over the exercises with other students had proved especially helpful.

Required texts:

Treffpunkt Deutsch. Rosemarie Widmaier et. al.
Medium size English-German Dictionary

Testing and Evaluation:

- | | |
|--|------------------|
| 1. 4 exams = | 50% (12.5% each) |
| 2. Quia= | 15% |
| 3. Participation (requires attendance) = | 20% |
| 4. 1 Oral exam = | 15% |

Homework, Attendance and Courtesy:

- No late homework! Please turn it in on time.
- No make up Quiz!
- Attendance is mandatory and crucial for your success.
- Cell phones are turned off—during the class!

Academic Honesty:

Texas State University has an Academic Honor Code. For further details consult: www.mrp.txstate.edu/studenthandbook/rules.html#academic. Ignorance of the definition of plagiarism is not a valid excuse.
